

Power of Story:

Consumer Voice speakers

Want to hear real stories about problem gambling?

Book a speaker to come to you...

Hearing a speaker share their unique experience of problem gambling first hand allows the audience to walk in their shoes and gain a greater understanding of the affect Problem Gambling has on individuals and their families.

It can serve to inform others about gambling, contributing to their knowledge of problem gambling. Their stories can inspire and give hope to others grappling with their own gambling difficulties.

Who can our speakers talk to?

Consumer Voice speakers are trained and supported to tailor the story of their personal journey of problem gambling and their recovery to a range of audiences, including:

- Forums
- Large and small groups
- Community organisations
- Networks and team meetings
- Workforce development and training
- Other
