Overview

Do you care about community services? Do you have a passion for helping others? Do you want to make a difference?

Our Certificate IV in Community Services is your path to a rewarding and worthwhile career in community services. Your knowledge and skills will equip you to design and deliver person-centred services for individuals and community groups with diverse and complex needs. You will be able to build effective relationships with clients from all backgrounds, and advocate for their interests and rights.

You will learn from experienced practitioners who will support you at every stage of your learning.

You will be able to work at your own pace, in a flexible blended learning environment that allows you to balance your studies with your other commitments.

Our knowledge, experience and reputation will ensure you graduate ready to secure employment in this important field.

Learning Outcomes

This course will give you the skills and knowledge to work effectively in a wide range of community welfare and support roles. You will be able to:

- build effective relationships with clients from a diverse range of backgrounds
- assess client needs and respond appropriately
- provide person centred services to clients with diverse and complex needs
- refer clients to specialist services and support when needed
- recognise and respond appropriately to crisis situations, and to evidence of family violence, mental health issues and child harm
- advocate for the interests and rights of clients
- develop and maintain effective networks and partnerships
- work within a community development framework

- follow safe work practices
- manage personal stressors in a work environment
- work legally and ethically.

Entry Requirements

All applicants will be assessed for suitability to the qualification. Each applicant is required to undertake an online language, literacy and numeracy (LLN) assessment. The online LLN tool is designed to assess your Language, Literacy (understanding how to use reading, writing, listening and speaking for a purpose and in context) and Numeracy skills.

This short test will give the Institute insight to the right level of study for you. After the test, you will have time to review the results and discuss enrolment with our Enrolments & Training Coordinator.

Employment Opportunities

Graduates will be qualified to work in a variety of community services settings. This could include community work, aged care, disability work, mental health, drug education, youth work, advocacy, crisis intervention and more. Common job titles include:

- Counsellor
- Community Worker
- Case Worker
- Prevention Worker
- Home-Based Care Worker
- Disability Worker
- Welfare Worker
- Early Intervention Worker

The Federal Government estimates that the demand for welfare workers will be very strong over the next 5 years. See joboutlook.gov.au
