Overview

Due to popular demand this course is now full for 2021

Do you enjoy working with young people? Do you have a passion for helping others? Do you want to make a difference?

Our Certificate IV in Youth Work is your path to a rewarding career working with young people. Your knowledge and skills will equip you to design and deliver person-centred services for young people with diverse and complex needs. You will be able to build effective and respectful relationships with clients from all backgrounds, and advocate for their interests and rights.

You will learn from experienced practitioners, in a course based on over 60 years of frontline youth and family services work by Relationships Australia. Our helpful and expert staff will support you at every stage of your learning

You will be able to work at your own pace, in a flexible blended learning environment that allows you to balance your studies with your other commitments.

Our knowledge, experience and reputation will ensure you graduate ready to secure employment in this important field.

Learning Outcomes

This course will give you the skills and knowledge to work effectively in a wide range of youth services and support roles. You will be able to:

- build effective relationships with young people from all backgrounds
- assess client needs and respond appropriately
- provide person centred services to clients with diverse and complex needs
- refer clients to specialist services and support when needed
- recognise and respond appropriately to crisis situations, including evidence of family violence, mental

- health issues and abusive behaviour
- plan and conduct group activities
- advocate for the interests and rights of clients
- develop and maintain effective networks and partnerships
- work within a community development framework
- follow safe work practices
- work legally and ethically.

Entry Requirements

All applicants will be assessed for suitability to the qualification. Each applicant is required to undertake an online language, literacy and numeracy (LLN) assessment. The online LLN tool is designed to assess your Language, Literacy (understanding how to use reading, writing, listening and speaking for a purpose and in context) and Numeracy skills.

This short test will give the Institute insight to the right level of study for you. After the test, you will have time to review the results and discuss enrolment with our Enrolments & Training Coordinator.

Employment Opportunities

Graduates will be qualified to work in a variety of youth and community services settings. This could include community work, disability work, mental health, drug education, advocacy, crisis intervention and more. Common job titles include:

- Youth Worker
- Community Development Worker
- Case Worker
- Welfare Worker
- Support Worker

The Federal Government estimates that the demand for youth workers will be very strong over the next 5 years. See joboutlook.gov.au
